Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claims 1-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Jong et al (US 6,192,403).

Jong et al teach 1. a method of operating a computerized system to provide computer recommendation information for a plurality of computers, including the steps of generating an operation profile for a computer using machine information specific to the computer (col. 11, line 64 to col. 12, line 6), wherein the operation profile indicates at least a usage trend for the computer and generating a recommendation for at least one computer system solution which satisfies at least the usage trend (col. 12, line 63 to col. 13, line 7). Jong et al further teach the steps of generating the operation profile, receiving the machine information from the computer via a network connection (col. 2, lines 41-48), a system wherein the plurality of system options are provided by a plurality of third party solution providers (col. 5, lines 60-65), further include the steps of configuring the at least one computer system solution to indicate system specifications and a price (col. 6, lines 32-38).
